

Bio - Sean Mori

Current biography

Sean Mori, age 8, started his violin studies at age 3 and piano studies at age 7. He currently studies the violin with Bettina Mussumeli in the Preparatory Division of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music since age 6. Sean has performed at numerous recitals in the Bay Area, Chicago and in Europe. His first public solo performance was at age 5 at Stanford Shopping Center. At age 6, he performed as a youngest member of "Magical Strings of Youth" which toured Prague in Czech Republic with concert violinist Vadim Gluzman and the co-founder of Stradivari Society Mary Galvin. He became a youngest member of Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra also at age 7. He is a third grader student at Addison Elementary School in Palo Alto. Besides music, Sean enjoys variety of sports, especially soccer and karate, Lego, drawing and reading. He loves to play with friends and his younger sister.